SUMMARY

Policy analyst with field and desk research across six Indian states on how social protection, gender and rural livelihood programmes reach, or fail to reach, intended beneficiaries. Combines qualitative and quantitative analysis (semi-structured interviews, institutional analysis, Stata, NFHS and Census data, Excel cost and coverage models) and presents findings as structured written analysis and decks. MPP and Law, TISS (2027). Available full time from December 2026.

EXPERIENCE

Research Intern, Transgender Persons Protection Cell

May 2026 – Jul 2026

Pride Place, Women Safety Wing, Telangana State Police, Hyderabad

- Wrote a four-part implementation analysis of the Transgender Persons (Protection of Rights) Act 2019 for police leadership, tracing where statutory entitlement failed to convert into administrative delivery.
- Benchmarked Telangana's protection mechanisms against Kerala and Tamil Nadu to locate implementation gaps.
- Reviewed case records and observed intake and referral directly; presented findings to the Cell as a structured deck.

Consultant

Apr 2025 – Present

Transform Rural India / Village Square

- Conducted 14 semi-structured interviews with SHG members, panchayat representatives and development practitioners across six states on why district-level public services reach some communities and not others.
- Synthesised field and archival research into published analysis; supported the team documenting TRI's LEAP programme design.

HR Intern
